Zara Home introduces new Flora collection

Under the gaze of prestigious photographer François Halard, the Zara Home Autumn-Winter 2015/16 campaign is divided into three parts, with the aim of representing decorating trends for the coming season. The campaign is in three editorials full of inspiration, which reflect the three different and equally sophisticated styles of bringing fashion into your home.

The first part of the campaign: Flora, with a romantic and vintage feel. The images and video show a collection comprising washed linens in pastel colours, frills, lace and antique flower prints that will transport you to a nostalgic and stylish ambience.

The Flora campaign includes the Hotel collection in its decorations, which this year feature metallic mixes in gold and silver with white as the backdrop to the prints. This first part also features the romanticism of embroidery on a total white look, accompanied by frills, creating textures in the fabrics.

Eric Favre Paris introduces Beauty Hair Color

One of the hair dilemmas of many is that as time goes by not only our skin shows the signs of aging. Our hair too does turn to salt and pepper and sure does tell age.

Eric Favre Paris, an international French company known for its organic and natural beauty and wellness products, understands the need to care for our mane attraction. The company introduces Beauty Hair Color - this is just not your ordinary hair colour.

It is a hair dye with provitamins treatment that covers white hair 100% and is free from paraben, ammonia, silicone and resorcin.

Prescribed for delicate hair, this hair care system is made from ultra-gentle natural complex & plant extracts and is clinically and dermatologically tested.

It does more than just giving you natural, rich and radiant colour. BHC protects and strengthens hair making your tresses three times stronger.

It also has UV protection and preserves the color and highlights for four weeks.

Included in the pack are colour crème, shampoo, mask, colour developer and a pocket size serum which you can carry around to keep you colours intact. Beauty Hair Color has 20 shades covering natural, ash and luminous.

So the next time you see silver strands, you know what to do. Grab a pack of Beauty Hair Color and start cooking up some magic!

Jalboot offers passenger ferry service in Abu Dhabi

Abu Dhabi will soon have its first scheduled, multi-destination passenger ferry service giving residents and tourists a new perspective of the UAE capital and its surrounding landmarks through 100 kilometres of scenic waterway.

Jalboot Marine Network LLC (Jalboot), a home-grown brand founded by Emirates Consortium, will link major attractions and landmarks in the city and surrounding islands with a scheduled daily service taking in four strategically located stops which will include Etihad Towers, Abu Dhabi Mall, Yas Marina and the Fairmont Bab Al Bahr. There are also expansion plans to integrate new stops.

"Jalboot will cater to all. It is an exciting alternative to getting around Abu Dhabi's spectacular coastal area in a service unique in the emirate. Our intended route offers panoramic views and unparalleled sights that highlight Abu Dhabi's heritage and traditions while significantly complementing the existing transportation facilities and contributing to the realisation of Abu Dhabi's 2030 Vision," said Thomas Rebellini, Head of Finance, Sales and Marketing at Jalboot Marine Network LLC.

Due to set sail on Oct. 19, the service will enable tourists and residents alike traditional pearl-diving boats, Jalboot ferries have been designed by award winning European boat builder and custom-made in the UAE to Jalboot specifications. The jet-powered ferries, which can host up to 40 seated passengers, two standard wheelchairs to affordably explore major destinations with ease, safety and comfort providing a scenic alternative to road travel.

Named to pay homage to the UAE's and up to three crew members, are fully enclosed but with windows to take in the views, air-conditioned and with leather business class style seating.

Set the stage with Harrods' Christmas windows

The Christmas windows on Brompton Road will evoke a world of puppets and performers. Inspired by the Harrods Christmas theme, each window will contain a spectacular stage complete with lights, scenery and red velvet curtains. Meanwhile, hidden beneath the floorboards is a magical world of Christmas mice. Peter Pumpernickel will return to lead the entertainment, as the mice play and prepare for their performance. Harrods Christmas windows will be unveiled on Nov.6.

As one of the most popular Christmas departments in London, Harrods Christmas World is full of exclusive decorations and gifts. This year, the department celebrates the festive season with seven themes, including the vibrant, Venetian-inspired Magical Marionettes. Christmas World is now open on the Second Floor.

The Festival of Christmas begins on Nov.7 with the launch of the Harrods Christmas Windows and the opening of the Christmas Grotto. Families are invited to join in the fun in Hans Crescent over the weekend and discover beautiful trees and decorations, festive characters and entertainment for the children.

Harrods will partner with The Mandarin Oriental Hyde Park to celebrate A Very Harrods Christmas. The hotel lobby will be transformed into a festive winter scene, with Harrods decorations and a Christmas tree as the centrepiece. Teddy Bear Tea will be served in The Rosebery, with cakes, macaroons and made by head pastry chef Heather Kaniuk.

A Harrods pop-up next to Bar Boudoir, on the lower ground floor, will be stocked with gifts including Harrods Christmas Hampers. The Very Harrods Christmas package includes a Christmas welcome gift on arrival, the Harrods 2015 Teddy Bear and a VIP appointment with the Harrods Gift Bureau to help you find presents for your friends and family.
